Toledo Museum of Art

Report of the President

Toledo, O., May 5th, 1903.

To the Members of the Toledo Museum of Art:

Another year has passed, the second in our history, and one in which your trustees feel a just pride. It bears the marks of the first real important step which we have undertaken and which we hope has made an impression such as will prove to be of lasting benefit not only to each of our members but to the entire city.

A year ago this Association was renting a temporary gallery; tonight we hold our second annual meeting under our own roof, and in a permanent home dedicated to the objects of our Association, "a Museum of Art," whose doors I hope will always be open to such of the public as may desire to see the objects of art that may temporarily or permanently be placed within its walls.

I believe we may well congratulate ourselves upon the first two years' history of our organization. The exhibitions given during the year have been very interesting ones, especially the first—the Local Loan Exhibit—which brought from the homes of Toledo the very best works of art contained therein. The attendance has been quite gratifying to your trustees.

It was decided by your trustees, early in the year, to have one free day each week, and Sunday from two to six p. m. was determined upon. These have been very largely attended, and it has been estimated that the largest attendance any one Sunday afternoon exceeded 500 people. The school children's afternoons—Tuesdays and Fridays—have also proved a success, and, we believe, a benefit. It is the hope of your trustees that this organization will, in the near future, be placed upon such financial basis as will enable us to have the Toledo Museum of Art open to the public, free, every day in the year, and it is our aim to strive to this end.

We are indebted to Gen. C. M. Spitzer for the long loan of his entire collection to the Museum. This has added very much to the several exhibitions which we have held. We are also indebted to the Grand Army Memorial Association, who have signified their intention of allowing the beautiful painting, which they own, to be left in the Museum permanently. Since my last report I am happy to announce that Mr. Graff Acklin presented the Museum with a very beautiful painting, which now belongs to us and will hang upon our walls permanently. It is such donations as these that your trustees desire, and it is hoped that we may have the pleasure of receiving many such. A very beautiful piece of hall furniture was also presented to us by Mr. Brinkerhoff, who, though not a citizen of Toledo, is quite interested in our Association and will soon become one of our members. I also desire to report that some very rare Manila mats were presented to us by Mr. Knabenshue, whose son served with the United States troops at Manila.

We now have our Museum, and our rooms must be filled not only with paintings but also with other objects of art, and we must depend upon the liberal minded citizens of Toledo to, from time to time, present us with such works which will be placed in the Museum permanently, and it is earnestly hoped that the interest in this Association will be such as to cause many of the citizens of Toledo to donate works of art or money for the purchase of same.

The report of our Director will give you more details of the work done by your Board during the past year and I cannot too strongly urge upon the members the necessity of a heartier co-operation from each in helping your trustees create more interest, obtain more members and giving to them your best support.

At our last meeting we showed 452 members, and today we report only 360, showing a loss of 92 members. Certainly this is not encouraging to us for we believe that the membership should have increased this year. We do not believe this is due to any particular lack of interest, but is because your trustees have not been able to personally see these people, who, if seen, would, I know, renew their membership for this year. Therefore it seems to me that if each member would take it upon himself or herself to secure one new member each year—and this certainly could easily be done—we could continue to hold the membership and show an increase instead of decrease.

The Toledo Museum of Art is now, we believe, fixed upon a permanent basis and the work so recently commenced will certainly be appreciated and will doubtless prove to be one of the strongest educational features we have in the city. We believe it is worthy of the earnest support of every citizen in Toledo, and the work now being done, and which will be done in the coming years, will prove not only beneficial to our citizens but will have an influence towards higher education in this line which will bring pleasure and benefit to all.

Before closing my report I desire to extend my thanks, in behalf of the trustees of the Toledo Museum of Art, to the newspapers of Toledo who have given this Association their hearty co-operation and support; to the director and treasurer, who have so untiringly assisted us, and to all who have in any way large or small assisted in the work for the past year.

Respectfully yours,

E. D. LIBBEY, President.

Report of the Director

Toledo, Ohio, May 5, 1903.

To the Members of the Toledo Museum of Art :

A year ago, when the Trustees found that the gallery in the Gardner building would not be available for another year, the necessity of securing permanent quarters became more apparent. During the months of May and June various plans for a gallery were considered by the Trustees, but after careful study no one plan seemed entirely satisfactory until the President, Mr. E. D. Libbey, offered to purchase the property, 1216 Madison avenue, remodel it, and rent it to the Association as a permanent home for the Toledo Museum of Art. This plan was adopted, and in August the remodeling of building was begun.

On December 13th the building was turned over to the Association, complete in every detail, pertaining to the requirements of a modern art gallery.

The opening exhibition in the new gallery was given January 19 to February 14, 1903 and consisted of a local loan exhibition of paintings. The many valuable works of art owned in this city made this exhibition of 263 pictures a great success.

Following this, on March 7, 1903, came the seventh annual exhibition of the Society of Western Artists.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

In this collection were 249 works of art, oils, water colors, pastels, etchings, sculpture, and pottery, which showed the excellent work that is being done by the artists of the middle west. The exhibition opening, April 20 to May 9, consisted of a very choice collection of Japanese paintings and prints augmented by some good examples of foreign posters. The exhibition of the High School and Manual Training will complete the Spring exhibitions. In October, the Museum will again be open to the public. Free days on Sundays to the public and to the school children with teachers on Tuesdays and Fridays, have been a great success and well attended.

At the last annual meeting provision was made for a Sustaining Membership. Since then the Trustees have secured some sixty Sustaining Members, each of whom agrees to pay annually for five years the sum of fifty dollars, which aggregate sum amounts to $3,000.00 per year. The fixed charges—such as rent, taxes, insurance, heat, light, salary and other annual expenses—will amount to about $3,500.00 per year, therefore it will be necessary to increase this membership to seventy.

As this Sustaining Membership Fund cannot be used to bring exhibitions to Toledo, we must look to the Annual Members to make this possible.

To Annual Members who pay ten dollars a year, 300 membership cards have been issued, which will allow us but $3,000.00 to spend on exhibitions this year. This sum is inadequate to our needs for we should have at least $5,000.00 a year to spend on exhibitions. With a membership of 500 Annual Members, first class exhibitions of pictures can be brought to Toledo.

Picture exhibitions are necessarily expensive, the higher the standard of work, the more costly the exhibition as the Museum must pay for collection, transportation, installation, insurance, etc., etc.

As an inducement for the professional artist to contribute examples of his work to the exhibitions, most museums find it necessary to offer money prizes for the best work exhibited or else guarantee a certain number of sales. This brings to a museum the best work obtainable, and while we have no prize or purchasing fund at present, it is a condition we will have to deal with in the near future.

Until that time arrives when this Museum shall have an Endowment Fund like other Art Galleries, we shall need the support of a large membership to make the Toledo Museum of Art a success.

A little more personal pride in our city, a more apparent public spirit, unity and generosity, a desire for all the advantages which culture demands, a greater love for the beautiful, and a seeking for only the best would soon establish in Toledo an art museum on a par with those of the progressive cities of the land.

Very respectfully,

ALMON C. WHITING,
Secretary and Director.
